Reflections

12 October 10

It was helpful to hear other leaders' recruitment techniques. (I'm still a little overwhelmed by this, but it may be more due to several extreme family incidents that have occurred recently more than doing the work itself.)

I liked following along on the Leaders' site while discussing the work during the meeting.

The phone conference works well for me because it is difficult to get to a place after school where I have access to Skype or other web-forum type set-ups, but I can be on the internet and phone at the same time.
